CULTURAL CHANGES OF THE MIGRANTS FAMILIES

Dr Manikamma N. Sultanpur & Sri. C.V. Kalaburagi

ABSTRACT

Migration over the last two decades has been one of the major fashionable changes in the Asian region. This is a study almost the migrant cultural change in Indian origins. However, the cultures as we know they are the consequence of centuries of migration. The research is based on surveys of 500men respondents. Collected the respondent's opinion on occupational factor and family status. With the dramatic change in national cultures associated with such migration, the study sought to identify the emergence of differences over time in the occupational behaviour and observance to traditional family values. The main finding of the study is that these migrants duration is less than five years or within ten years i.e.(84.0%) percent of the respondents who belong to this category

EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN THROUGH DECISION MAKING

Dr. Manikamma N. Sultanpur & Dr. A.G. Khan

Abstract:

Empowerment of women refers to aware of socio-psychocultural and political injustice that is prevailing in the society against women. Women empowerment is a prerequisite to gender equality and development. The process of empowerment should start from our own home. Women's position in the household determines women's autonomy in the family. It is worth to examine whether women can decide about household matters like buying jewelries, having access to money, having mobility to go to market or relative's house or getting health care facilities. Aim: to understand the Empowerment of Women through Household Decision Making.

Methods and material: Data have been utilized both primary and secondary, primary data collected through structured questionnaire and secondary data were collected through published articles, books and internet. And Used frequency and chi square technic for the
