CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Smt. C.B.Patil Degree College is affiliated to Gulbarga University, Kalaburagi. The university has a prescribed syllabus for every subject the college follows this syllabus which is prescribed by the University. Our academic calendar is based on the timeframe provided by the University. The principal in consultation with the management plans and prepares calendar of events for the years. This is communicated to the entire college through the various departmental heads. It does not have the freedom to develop the curriculum it follows the syllabus prescribed already by the Gulbarga University, Kalaburagi. The college has one academic plan i.e. a semester system from 2006 June. The Principal asked to prepare term plans of teaching from each faculty and this is a follow up by the heads of each departments. The college also ensures that faculty prepares a daily teaching plan for the entire terms. According to university system of education every student must have 75% physical presence in all classes in order to appear for the semester end examinations. Though Smt.C.B Patil Degree College initiates 80% attendance, students may remain absent for various personal reasons. Then such student have to meet the professor whose classes of she/he missed should take up an assignment to demonstrate that she / he has covered the matter.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The institution ensures operative time management and timeliness. It accepts the University given timeline and obeys to it. In the beginning of the academic year, academic calendar is published by the institution for each year of B.A and B.Com programm which gives a time plan for the curricular as well as the extracurricular activities for the students. This calendar allows the teachers and the students to space out their teaching, learning and regular assessment of the same. The college conducts assessment of the students in different components unit test, surprise test, open book test, internal test, seminar, group discussion and practical. The pattern and the marks distribution of all the components is as per the university format. They are recorded with their respective course outcomes that are stated in the beginning of the course. These tests are conducted in evenly spaced out intervals to avoid pressuring the students with too many examinations. Every academic year is split into two semesters. An average of best of the two internal examinations is calculated to attain the final internal marks of the student.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities (within 200 words).

The institution provides an inclusive environment for everyone with tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities.

Different sports and cultural activities are organized inside the college to promote harmony towards each other. Commemorative days like Women's Day, Yoga Day, Ozone day along with many regional festivals like Dasara and Sankranti are celebrated in the college. This establishes positive interaction between the people of different racial and cultural backgrounds.

Institution has code of ethics for the students and a separate code of ethics for the teachers and other employees which has to be followed by each one of them irrespective of their cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socioeconomic and other diversities.

As communal harmony is the driving force in the national development we are undertaking the best practices like Sarvadharm Prarthana (Every Tuesday), medical facilities on concession basis for staff and their dependents, formation of student union on merit basis, admission process on first come first serve model and subsidized fee as per government norms.

This year on 1st December we celebrated "World AIDS Day" to support global efforts to prevent new HIV infections, increase HIV awareness and knowledge, and support those living with HIV. Also on 3rd December we celebrated "International day of People with Disability" to increase awareness, understanding and acceptance of people with disability and celebrate their achievements and contributions.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best practices are those which add value to human life and support main cause of an institution. It helps in the development of an institution a means to perform social responsibility. It can change the life of whole institution as well as individual stake holders. The identification of the best practices depends on many variables like vision and mission of the institutions, global concerns, local context, nature of learners, competencies of staff, infrastructural facilities and governance and management. All these plays vital role in identification and implementation of best practices. Best practices according to NAAC the practices which add commendable value to an institution and its various stakeholders are considered as reliable benchmarks or standards of quality. The best institutions are those which widely used them. To put it differently, institutional excellence in higher education is the aggregate of the best practices followed in different areas of institutional performance.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust

within 200 words

1. Title of the Practice: Distribution of Fruits, Bread, Biscuits and other eatables to inpatients at Taluka Public Hospital by staff members on the occasion of their birthday.

2.Objectives of the Practice: i) To help the poor and needy

ii) To promote positive behavior

iii) To have sense of purpose and satisfaction.

3. The Context: Fruits are an excellent source of essential vitamins and minerals and they are high in fiber. Fruits also provide a wide range of health boosting antioxidants, including flavonoids. Eating a diet, high in fruits and vegetables can reduce a person's risk of developing heart disease, cancer. Citrus fruits and berries are especially powerful of curing diseases. They are also the immunity boosters.

4. The Practice: As the Taluka Health Centre is situated in front of our college, all the staff members of the college have decided to distribute Fruits, Breads, Biscuits, Dry Fruits and other eatables to the inpatients and needy on their birthday. The main objective of this is to provide nutritional food in order to improve their immunity so as to prevent the diseases.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

to it. In the beginning of the academic year, academic calendar is published by the institution for each year of B.A and B.Com programm which gives a time plan for the curricular as well as the extracurricular activities for the students. This calendar allows the teachers and the students to space out their teaching, learning and regular assessment of the same. The college conducts assessment of the students in different components unit test, surprise test, open book test, internal test, seminar, group discussion and practical. The pattern and the marks distribution of all the components is as per the university format. They are recorded with their respective course outcomes that are stated in the beginning of the course. These tests are conducted in evenly spaced out intervals to avoid pressuring the students with too many examinations. Every academic year is split into two semesters. An average of best of the two internal examinations is calculated to attain the final internal marks of the student.

The institution provides an inclusive environment for everyone with tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities.

Different sports and cultural activities are organized inside the college to promote harmony towards each other. Commemorative days like Women's Day, Yoga Day, Ozone day along with many regional festivals like Dasara and Sankranti are celebrated in the college. This establishes positive interaction between the people of different racial and cultural backgrounds.

Institution has code of ethics for the students and a separate code of ethics for the teachers and other employees which has to be followed by each one of them irrespective of their cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socioeconomic and other diversities.

As communal harmony is the driving force in the national development we are undertaking the best practices like Sarvadharm Prarthana (Every Tuesday), medical facilities on concession basis for staff and their dependents, formation of student union on merit basis, admission process on first come first serve model and subsidized fee as per government norms.

This year on 1st December we celebrated "World AIDS Day" to support global efforts to prevent new HIV infections, increase HIV awareness and knowledge, and support those living with HIV. Also on 3rd December we celebrated "International day of People with Disability" to increase awareness, understanding and acceptance of people with disability and celebrate their achievements and contributions.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best practices are those which add value to human life and support main cause of an institution. It helps in the development of an institution a means to perform social responsibility. It can change the life of whole institution as well as individual stake holders. The identification of the best practices depends on many variables like vision and mission of the institutions, global concerns, local context, nature of learners, competencies of staff, infrastructural facilities and governance and management. All these plays vital role in identification and implementation of best practices. Best practices according to NAAC the practices which add commendable value to an institution and its various stakeholders are considered as reliable benchmarks or standards of quality. The best institutions are those which widely used them. To put it differently, institutional excellence in higher education is the aggregate of the best practices followed in different areas of institutional performance.

They are also the immunity boosters.

4. The Practice: As the Taluka Health Centre is situated in front of our college, all the staff members of the college have decided to distribute Fruits, Breads, Biscuits, Dry Fruits and other eatables to the inpatients and needy on their birthday. The main objective of this is to provide nutritional food in order to improve their immunity so as to prevent the diseases.

7.3.2 - Plan of action for the next academic year

Plan to conduct Plastic Free Campaign: Plastic is now ubiquitous. People use it for no other reason than to be comfortable. No one, however, recognises how damaging it is to our planet. To stop plastic pollution, we must first become aware of the implications. Plastic has become one of the most commonly utilised materials. It may now be found everywhere, from stores to ordinary homes.

Plantation Program: Plantation plays an important role in maintaining the balance in nature. It has a great impact on the environment by reducing the incidences of global warming. Trees provide oxygen and that is necessary for human beings to live.

Plan to organize seminar/conference/workshop: to encourage teachers and students to think about research in new ways, conduct a seminar/conference or workshop for the purpose of enlightening information related to quality maintenance in higher education, s
