

Report on Celebration of National Farmers Day

Date: 23/12/2023

SUBJECT: "ENCOURAGING YOUTH / GRADUATES TO TAKE UP FARMING AS CAREER"

The celebration of National Farmers Day holds immense significance in recognizing the tireless efforts and contributions of our farmers towards the nation's development. In light of this, Sharana Basava University organized an essay competition on 23rd December 2023 to commemorate this day. The competition aimed to encourage students to delve into the topic of "Encouraging Graduates to Take Up Farming as a Career."

Two students from Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi, participated in the competition and showcased their exceptional writing skills. Their essay shed light on the importance of agriculture as a career choice for graduates and emphasized the need for more young minds to join this noble profession.

Their insightful analysis highlighted how farming not only provides food security but also offers numerous opportunities for innovation and entrepreneurship. They emphasized that by embracing modern technology and sustainable farming practices, graduates can contribute significantly to rural development and economic growth.

The efforts put forth by these students were recognized by the university, which awarded them certificates for their outstanding performance in the competition. This recognition serves as a testament to their dedication towards promoting agriculture as a viable career option among graduates.

In conclusion, through this essay competition, Sharana Basava University has successfully encouraged students to explore farming as a career choice. The participation of these two students from Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College exemplifies their commitment towards highlighting the importance of agriculture in our society.
