DEPARTMENT OF HISTOR

Report on Special Lecture Organized by the IQAC and Department of History

Date: 20th June 2024

Venue: Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi

On June 20, 2024, Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College hosted a special lecture organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in collaboration with the Department of History. The event aimed to enrich the academic understanding of significant historical events among students and faculty.

Event Highlights:

Prayer Song:

The event commenced with a melodious prayer song performed by Kum. Sujatha, a B A VIth-semester student. Her soulful rendition set a serene and reflective tone for the gathering.

Welcome Speech:

Dr. Divya K. Wadi, the Head of the Department of History, delivered the welcome speech. She highlighted the importance of understanding pivotal historical events like the Indian Rebellion of 1857 and encouraged students to actively engage with historical narratives to appreciate their relevance in contemporary society.

Resource Person:

The lecture was delivered by the esteemed Prof. Shivaraj G. Math from the Department of History at B.V. Bhoomareddy Art Science and Commerce College, Bidar. Prof. Math's insightful presentation focused on the 1857 Sepoy Riots, often referred to as the Indian Rebellion of 1857. He elaborated on the causes, events, and consequences of the rebellion, emphasizing its significance as a critical juncture in India's struggle for independence. The lecture was both informative and engaging, sparking lively discussions among the attendees.

IQAC Coordinator and Presidential Address:

The IQAC Coordinator was present on stage, underscoring the college's commitment to quality education and continuous learning. Dr. Manikamma Sultanpur, the Principal of the college, presided over the event. In her address, she reiterated the importance of historical knowledge in fostering a well-rounded educational experience.

Vote of Thanks:

Smt. Shilpa Patil, a lecturer in the Department of History, delivered the vote of thanks. She expressed gratitude to Prof. Math for sharing his expertise, to Dr. Divya K Wadi for her leadership, and to all attendees for their participation. Smt. Shilpa Patil highlighted the need for continued discourse on historical topics to enhance the learning environment within the college.

Attendance:

The event was well-attended by faculty members and students, reflecting a keen interest in historical studies and appreciation for the academic initiatives undertaken by the college.

The special lecture was a significant academic endeavor, promoting a deeper understanding of the Indian Rebellion of 1857. The collaborative efforts of the IQAC and the Department of History successfully facilitated an enriching experience for all participants. Such events play a crucial role in fostering intellectual growth and historical awareness among students.
