ABOUT SOCIETY

The late Shri. Mahadevappa Rampure founded the esteemed Hyderabad Karnataka Education Society in 1958 to serve the needs of higher education, particularly in the fields of medicine, engineering, pharmacy, law, education, commerce, the arts, science, and other technical skilled fields. The basis for its expansion and advancement was established by the efforts of farmers and business people. In the process of delivering higher education in the state's underdeveloped areas, the society has influenced the socio cultural, political, and economic development of the area. In the Hyderabad-Karnataka region, there are seven districts. Programs for multifaceted development are occasionally adopted. Motivated by democratic principles, the Society is skillfully run by a Board that consists of 13 chosen members in addition to the President, Vice President, and Secretary. The Society's current president is Sri Shashil G. Namoshi, MLC. Every Council member has a spotless background and is a responsible, informed individual. More than fifty educational institutions in a variety of fields are operated by the Society, including teaching hospitals, health sciences, technical schools, degree colleges, pre-university colleges, high schools, primary schools, and hostels.

ABOUT CONFERENCE

IKS has the potential to greatly contribute to the transformation of India's education and skill development system while also addressing the environmental, economic, and global societal needs and issues. As the country confidently looks to the future, the twenty-first century is shaping up to be India's century. The Indian government's overarching vision plan, "Viksit Bharat @ 2047," seeks to transform India into a developed country by its 100th anniversary of independence. It promotes social equality, technical innovation, environmental sustainability, and the "live and let live" principle, which fosters brotherhood while promoting economic prosperity. By 2047, India's economy, which is currently the world's fifth largest, is predicted to move to third place. This progress will drive improvements in infrastructure, education, and healthcare, benefiting women, youth, farmers, and the underprivileged. India's traditional AYUSH (Ayurveda, Yoga, Unani, Siddha, and Homeopathy) industry for economic expansion, health benefits, and international diplomacy is a crucial part of this development. Through Viksit Bharat @ 2047's proposed National Conference INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM (IKS) AND AYUSH FOR VIKSIT BHARAT will explore their role in global sustainability.
