Report on NSS Special Camp Meeting 2025–26

A preparatory meeting regarding the National Service Scheme (NSS) Special Camp 2025–26 was held on 05.05.2026 in the Principal's Chamber of Hyderabad Karnataka Educational Institution Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi.

The meeting was organized to discuss and finalize the arrangements and responsibilities for the seven-day NSS Special Camp scheduled from 07.05.2026 to 13.05.2026 at the adopted village Chimmaidalai.

The programme commenced with a welcome speech delivered by Dr. Divya K. Wadi, Head of the Department of History and NSS Coordinator. In her address, she explained the objectives of the NSS Special Camp and emphasized the importance of teamwork, discipline, and proper planning for the successful conduct of the camp.

During the meeting, all teaching and non-teaching staff members actively participated in discussions regarding the arrangements and management of the camp activities. Detailed discussions were held about the total number of NSS volunteers participating in the camp and the division of students into different teams for effective coordination and smooth functioning of camp activities.

Responsibilities were assigned to teaching and non-teaching staff members for various committees and activities. Discussions were also held regarding food arrangements, including breakfast, lunch, and dinner facilities for the NSS volunteers during the camp period. A discipline committee was formed to maintain order, punctuality, and discipline among the students throughout the camp.

Special attention was given to the transportation and safety arrangements for taking students from the college to the adopted village and bringing them back safely. Necessary instructions and responsibilities were entrusted to the concerned staff members to ensure the smooth conduct of all camp activities from 07 May to 13 May 2026.

The Principal, Dr. M. N. Sultanpur, guided the staff members and emphasized the importance of cooperation, commitment, and proper coordination in conducting the NSS camp successfully.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Smt. Bhagyashree, Lecturer in the Department of Political Science, who expressed gratitude to the Principal, staff members, and NSS committee members for their cooperation and participation in the meeting.

Report on NSS Special Camp – First Day (Inaugural Function)

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit Special Camp 2025–26 was jointly organized by Hyderabad Karnataka Educational Institution Smt. Chennamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi and Gulbarga University under the theme “Youth for My India and Youth for Digital Literacy.” The special camp was conducted from 07.05.2026 to 13.05.2026 at the adopted village Chimmaldalai.

The inaugural ceremony of the special camp was held on Thursday, 07.05.2026 at 11:00 a.m. in Chimmaldalai village. The programme commenced in a grand manner with enthusiastic participation from teaching staff, NSS volunteers, villagers, and students.

The programme was compered by Shri Kashinath Hunaje, Head of the Department of Kannada, Smt. Chennamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi. The invocation song was presented by Ms. Shaista Banu and Ms. Bibi Mariyamma, B.A. 6th Semester students. The NSS song was sung by Ms. Meghana and Ms. Bhagyashree, B.A. 6th Semester students.

The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Shankar B. Kodadoor, Head of the Department of English, who welcomed the dignitaries, staff members, students, and villagers to the inaugural function. The introductory speech was delivered by Dr. Divya K. Wadi, Head of the Department of History and NSS Coordinator, who explained the objectives and importance of the NSS Special Camp and highlighted the significance of youth participation in nation-building and digital literacy.

The Chief Guest of the programme was Shri Suresh Swamy, Headmaster of Shri Veerabhadreshwara Higher Primary School, Chimmaldalai. In his address, he appreciated the efforts of the NSS Unit in organizing the camp and encouraged students to actively participate in social service activities and digital awareness programmes for rural development.

During the programme, the National Service Scheme pledge was administered to all NSS volunteers, inspiring them to work selflessly for society and the nation.

The presidential address was delivered by Dr. M. N. Sultanpur, Principal of Smt. Chennamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi. In her speech, she motivated the NSS volunteers to utilize the camp effectively for personality development, leadership qualities, social responsibility, and service to rural communities.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Smt. Bhagyashree K., Head of the Department of Political Science, who expressed gratitude to all dignitaries, staff members, students, villagers, and volunteers for making the inaugural programme successful.

The programme concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

Report on NSS Special Camp – Second Day

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit Special Camp 2025–26 was jointly organized by Hyderabad Karnataka Educational Institution Smt. Chennamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi and Gulbarga University at the adopted village Chimmaidalai. The second day of the camp was conducted successfully on 08.05.2026 with active participation from NSS volunteers, teaching staff, and villagers.

The day began at 6:00 a.m. with flag hoisting followed by the singing of the National Service Scheme song and the National Anthem. After the formal opening activities, simple physical exercises and yoga sessions were conducted by Shri Gurunath, Physical Education Lecturer, from 6:00 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. The session helped volunteers maintain physical fitness and discipline during the camp.

Breakfast was served from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. After breakfast, NSS volunteers actively participated in Shramadan activities from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the adopted village. The volunteers enthusiastically engaged in cleanliness and community service activities for the welfare of the village.

A special lecture programme was organized from 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. on the theme “India’s Digital Literacy Revolution and Youth”. The programme was compered by Mr.Suman, B.A. 4th Semester student.

The prayer song was sung by Ms. Meenakshi and Ms. Renuka, B.A. 4th Semester students, while the NSS song was presented by Ms. Bhagyashree and Ms. Nikita, B.A. 6th Semester students. The welcome speech was delivered by Ms. Akshata, B.A. 4th Semester student.

The chief guests of the programme were Dr. Shankar B. K., Head of the Department of English, and Shri Amrish Pawar, Lecturer in the Department of Commerce. They addressed the students about the importance of digital literacy, youth participation in national development, and the responsible use of digital technology in modern society.

Dr. Divya K. Wadi, Head of the Department of History and NSS Coordinator, guided the volunteers and highlighted the objectives of the NSS camp activities.

The presidential address was delivered by Dr. M. N. Sultanpur, Principal of Smt. Chennamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi. In her speech, she motivated students to become socially responsible citizens and encouraged them to contribute towards digital awareness in rural areas.

The vote of thanks was delivered by Ms. Asfiya, B.A. 4th Semester student. The programme concluded successfully with enthusiastic participation from students and staff members.

Lunch was served from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., followed by a rest session from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Cultural programmes were conducted from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. under the team name “Krishna” led by team leader Suman. The cultural activities created awareness, entertainment, and unity among the NSS volunteers.

Dinner was served from 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The daily routine review was conducted from 9:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., and the day’s activities concluded with lights out and goodnight at 9:30 p.m.

Report on NSS Special Camp – Fifth Day

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit Special Camp 2025–26 was jointly organized by Hyderabad Karnataka Educational Institution Smt. Chennamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi and Gulbarga University at the adopted village Chimmaldalai. The fifth day of the camp was conducted successfully on Monday, 11.05.2026 with active participation from NSS volunteers, teaching staff, and villagers.

The day began at 6:00 a.m. with flag hoisting followed by the singing of the National Service Scheme song and the National Anthem. Simple exercises and yoga sessions were conducted by Shri Gurunath, Physical Education Lecturer, from 6:00 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. The session encouraged physical fitness, discipline, and mental well-being among the volunteers.

Breakfast was served from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. Rangoli activities were organized by Team Ganga, where volunteers actively participated and displayed their creativity and teamwork.

From 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon, NSS volunteers participated enthusiastically in Shramadan activities in the adopted village. The volunteers carried out cleanliness drives and community service works for the welfare and development of the village.

A special lecture programme was organized from 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. on the theme “Awareness on Health and Hygiene”. The programme was compered by Ms. Meghna, B.A. 6th Semester student.

The prayer song was sung by Ms. Nikita, B.A. 6th Semester student. The NSS song was presented by Ms. Bhagyashree and Ms. Aishwarya, B.A. 6th Semester students. The welcome speech was delivered by Ms. Arpita, B.Com 6th Semester student.

The chief guests of the programme were Dr. Suguresh, NCD Medical Officer, Government Hospital, Chincholi; Dr. Somsingh Rathod, CHO, Government Hospital, Chincholi; Shri Shaikh Bakhtiyar Jagirdar, Press Reporter and Advocate, Chincholi; Dr. Narasimha Aunty, Taluk Mahila Okkuta President, Chincholi; and Miss Heena Begum, Head of the Department of Commerce.

The dignitaries addressed the volunteers and explained the importance of health awareness, personal hygiene, cleanliness, nutrition, and preventive healthcare in rural communities. They encouraged students to spread awareness about sanitation and healthy lifestyles among the public.

Dr. Divya K. Wadi, Head of the Department of History and NSS Coordinator, guided the volunteers and highlighted the importance of social service and health awareness activities through NSS programmes.

The presidential address was delivered by Dr. M. N. Sultanpur, Principal of Smt. Chennamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi. In her speech, she motivated the students to actively participate in social awareness programmes and contribute to building a healthy society.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Nikita, B.A. 6th Semester student. The programme concluded successfully with enthusiastic participation from students, staff members, health officials, and villagers.

Lunch was served from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., followed by a rest session from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Cultural programmes were conducted from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. under Team Ganga led by team leader Ms. Meghna, B.A. 6th Semester student. The cultural activities promoted unity, awareness, and entertainment among the NSS volunteers.

Dinner was served from 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The daily routine review was conducted from 9:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., and the day concluded with goodnight at 9:30 p.m.

Report on NSS Special Camp – Seventh Day (Valedictory Function)

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit Special Camp 2025–26 organized jointly by Hyderabad Karnataka Educational Institution Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi and Gulbarga University concluded successfully with a grand valedictory function held on Wednesday, 13.05.2026 at the adopted village Chimmaldalai.

The seven-day NSS Special Camp was organized with the objective of developing social responsibility, leadership qualities, discipline, and community service spirit among the student volunteers. Throughout the camp, various social awareness programmes, Shramadan activities, special lectures, cultural programmes, health awareness activities, and community development programmes were conducted successfully with enthusiastic participation from NSS volunteers and villagers.

The valedictory programme was compered by Smt. Sunita Madagi. The programme began with a prayer song rendered by Ms. Meghana and team. The welcome speech was delivered by Ms. Nikita, B.A. 4th Semester student.

During the programme, NSS Programme Officer Dr. Divya K. Wadi presented the detailed report of the seven-day NSS Special Camp and highlighted the various activities and achievements of the camp. NSS volunteers Mr. Dinesh, Mr. Sunil, Ms. Nagamma, and Ms. Apoorva shared their experiences and opinions about the camp activities and explained how the camp helped them develop confidence, leadership qualities, discipline, and social awareness.

The chief guest of the programme, social worker Shri Uma Patil, shared her NSS experiences from her college days and motivated the students to develop good values and make effective use of student life, which she described as the golden period of life.

The presidential address was delivered by Dr. M. N. Sultanpur, Principal of Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi. In her speech, she explained the importance of NSS camps, the need for social service, and the role of such camps in the personality development of students. He appreciated the efforts of NSS volunteers, programme officers, staff members, and villagers for making the camp successful.

The programme was attended by NSS Programme Officer Dr. Divya K. Wadi, IQAC Coordinator Dr. Ramakrishna B., Smt. Sunita, Dr. Basavaraj, Shri Gurunath, Miss Heena Begum, Miss Vijayalakshmi, teaching and non-teaching staff members, villagers, and NSS volunteers.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Sameer Pasha, B.Com 4th Semester student. The programme concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.
