Report on Special Lecture Organized by IQAC and Department of History

Date: 29/05/2026

Topic : Special Lecture on "Quit India Movement in Karnataka – Its Effects"

Venue: Smart Classroom, Smt.Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi

Organized by: IQAC and Department of History

Participants: All B.A. Students

A Special Lecture on "Quit India Movement in Karnataka – Its Effects" was organized by the IQAC and the Department of History on 29th May 2026 in the Smart Classroom of Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi. The programme was conducted for all B.A. students with the objective of creating awareness about the role of Karnataka in India's freedom struggle and the impact of the Quit India Movement.

The programme began with Dr. Divya K. Wadi, Head of the Department of History, serving as the anchor and introducing the purpose of the special lecture. The gathering was formally welcomed by Smt. Sunita Madgi, lecturer, department of Economics, who greeted the resource person, faculty members, and students and emphasized the importance of understanding India's freedom movement.

The resource person, Dr. Basavaraj Bhaga, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Government College (Autonomous), Kalaburagi, delivered an insightful and informative lecture on the topic "Quit India Movement in Karnataka – Its Effects." He explained the historical background of the Quit India Movement launched in 1942 under the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi and highlighted the active participation of people from Karnataka in the struggle for independence.

Dr. Basavaraj Bhaga elaborated on the significant events that took place in different regions of Karnataka during the movement and discussed the sacrifices made by freedom fighters. He also explained how the movement inspired national unity, political awareness, and resistance against British rule. The lecture emphasized the social, political, and cultural effects of the movement in Karnataka and its contribution to the achievement of India's independence.

In her Presidential Remarks, Dr. M. N. Sultanpur, Principal of the College, appreciated the Department of History and IQAC for organizing the special lecture. She emphasized that the younger generation should understand and preserve the values of patriotism, sacrifice, and national unity demonstrated by freedom fighters. She encouraged students to learn from the struggles of the leaders of the freedom movement and contribute positively to society and nation-building. She also highlighted the importance of studying regional history to gain a deeper understanding of India's journey to independence.

The students actively participated in the session and gained valuable knowledge about the regional dimensions of the freedom struggle. The lecture proved to be highly educational and inspiring for the participants.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Miss. Heena Begum, Lecturer, Department of Commerce, who expressed gratitude to the resource person for his enlightening lecture, the Principal, faculty members, and students for their active participation and support in making the programme successful.

The programme was informative, inspiring, and beneficial in enhancing students' understanding of Karnataka's contribution to the Indian freedom movement.
