Report on Special Lecture Programme

A Special Lecture Programme was organized by the IQAC and the Department of Economics, Smt. Chinnamma Basappa Patil Arts and Commerce Degree College, Chincholi, on 30 May 2026 in the college seminar hall. The programme aimed to enhance students' understanding of contemporary economic issues and provide them with expert insights into important areas of economics.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome address by Smt. Sunita M., Lecturer in Economics, who welcomed the dignitaries, faculty members, and students. The programme was graced by Dr. Divya K. Wadi, Assistant Professor, Department of History, as the Chief Guest. Dr. M.N. Sultanpur, Principal and Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, presided over the function. Dr. Ramakrishna B., Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, was present on the dais as the Honorable Guest.

The first special lecture was delivered by Dr. Sharanabasappa Waddanakere, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Khaja Bandanawaz University, Kalaburagi, on the topic "International Trade." He explained the concept, significance, and theories of international trade and highlighted its role in promoting economic growth and development. He discussed the advantages of international trade, including specialization, efficient resource utilization, increased employment opportunities, and improved standards of living. He also elaborated on India's position in the global market and the challenges and opportunities arising from globalization. The lecture provided students with a comprehensive understanding of international trade and its relevance in the modern economy.

The second session was conducted by Dr. Mahadev, Lecturer, Department of Economics, SSKB Degree College, Basavakalyan, who delivered an insightful lecture on "Unemployment in India." He discussed the various forms of unemployment prevalent in the country, such as seasonal, structural, disguised, frictional, and educated unemployment. He highlighted the major causes of unemployment, including population growth, technological changes, lack of industrialization, and skill mismatch. Dr. Mahadev also explained the socio-economic consequences of unemployment and emphasized the importance of skill development, entrepreneurship, and effective government policies in generating employment opportunities. His lecture encouraged students to critically analyze the employment scenario in India and explore possible solutions.

Addressing the gathering, Chief Guest Dr. Divya K. Wadi emphasized the importance of understanding economic issues in the context of national development. She encouraged students to actively participate in academic programmes and develop a broader perspective on socio-economic challenges.

In her presidential remarks, Dr. M.N. Sultanpur appreciated the Department of Economics and IQAC for organizing the programme. She stressed the importance of special lectures in enriching students' academic knowledge and motivating them towards research and higher education.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The interactive sessions enabled students to clarify their doubts and gain valuable knowledge from the resource persons. The programme proved to be highly informative and beneficial for the students.

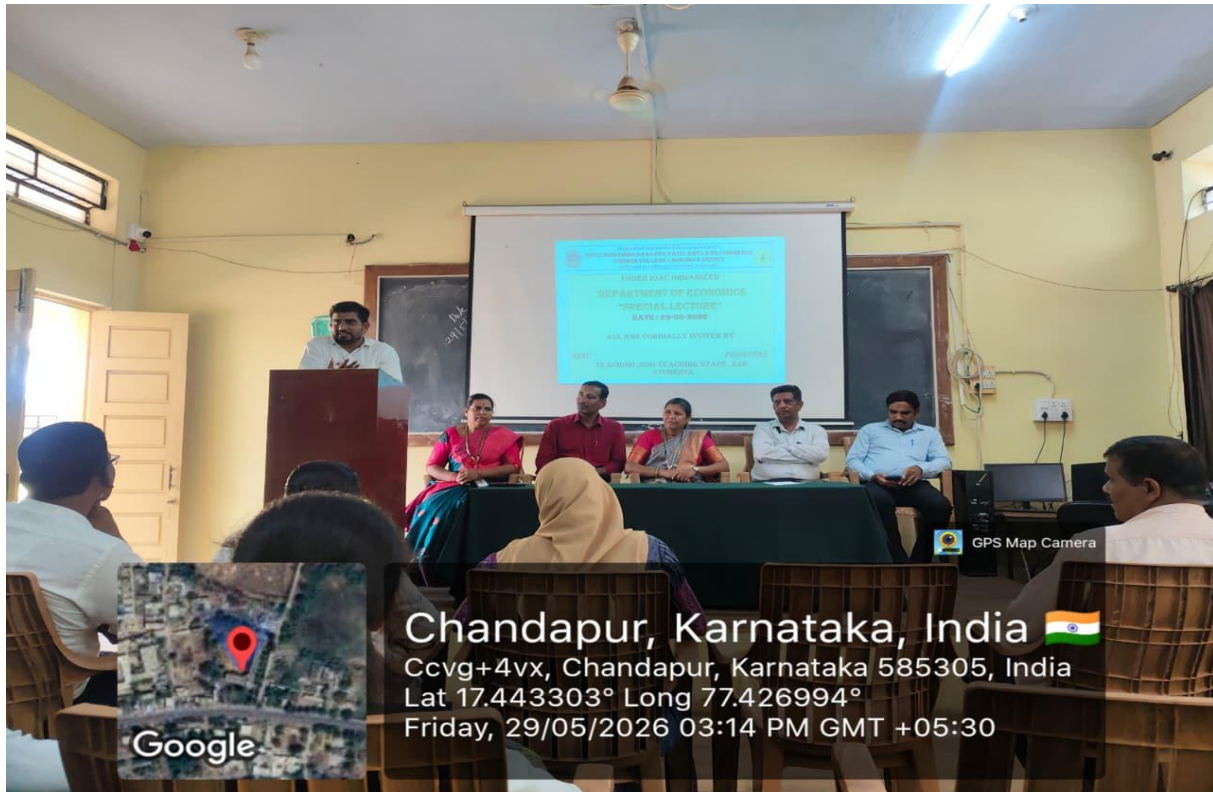

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Mr. Amaresh Pawar, Lecturer in Commerce, who expressed gratitude to the resource persons, chief guest, principal, faculty members, students, and all those who contributed to the successful conduct of the programme.
