Introduction

The Mentor–Mentee System is an important student support initiative implemented under the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) to strengthen teacher–student interaction and promote holistic student development. The programme provides continuous academic guidance, personal counseling, career support, and emotional encouragement to students throughout the academic year.

The mentoring process helps identify students' strengths, weaknesses, academic challenges, and personal concerns while creating a supportive learning environment within the institution.

Purpose of the Programme

The Mentor–Mentee system is implemented as a quality initiative under IQAC to provide continuous academic monitoring, personal guidance, and holistic development of students. The programme helps in building a strong teacher–student relationship and supports institutional quality enhancement.

Objectives

1. To improve students' academic performance and attendance.
2. To provide personal counseling and career guidance.
3. To promote participation in curricular, co-curricular, and extension activities.
4. To develop communication skills, confidence, leadership, and discipline.
5. To identify slow and advanced learners and provide appropriate support.
6. To create a supportive and inclusive learning environment.
7. To develop social responsibility, ethical values, and teamwork.
8. To motivate students towards higher education and career opportunities.

Methodology Adopted

The mentoring process was carried out systematically through:

1. Allocation of 30 mentees to the mentor.
2. Conducting regular mentor–mentee meetings throughout the academic year.
3. Maintaining mentoring records and individual student profiles.
4. Monitoring attendance and academic progress.
5. Providing counseling and remedial support.
6. Identifying slow and advanced learners.
7. Collecting feedback from mentees for improvement.
8. Providing career guidance and information on higher education opportunities.
9. Encouraging participation in academic, cultural, NSS, sports, and extension activities.

Areas of Mentoring Support

The following areas were continuously monitored during the academic year:

Academic Support

1. Attendance monitoring
2. Internal assessment performance
3. Semester examination preparation
4. Study planning and time management
5. Academic improvement strategies

Personal Support

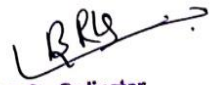

1. Confidence building
2. Emotional well-being
3. Stress management
4. Discipline and behavioral guidance

Career Support

1. Career awareness programmes
2. Competitive examination guidance
3. Higher education opportunities
4. Goal setting and future planning

Institutional Support

1. Library utilization
2. Scholarship awareness
3. ICT usage
4. Participation in institutional activities
